Making Sense of Digital Humanities at the Library

We Faced Digital Humanities (DH) in interactions with researchers and students, then asked: How do we DH?
- How do we relate our work to a complex and evolving notion such as DH?
- How do we integrate a support researchers and students in DH?

We Looked for Answers in Interviews, Surveys and DH Activities at Libraries in the Nordics and Beyond
- Interviews, observations and documents from libraries in Sweden, Denmark, and the USA
- A survey on how libraries in Sweden, Denmark, Norway and Finland describe their work related to DH
- Design and evaluation of DH activities for students and researchers at Uppsala University Library

We Framed New Challenges and Opportunities in a Life-Cycle Perspective on Research and Education
