Errata

On page 2 under Abstract, Design and methods, first paragraph; abbreviations are missing after online discussion forum. Correct sentence should be, “In the RCT, the comparator was a nine-week online discussion forum (ODF) (n=72)”.

On page 7 under Abbreviations; Abbreviations are missing in the list; Abbreviations that are missing and should be added are, CBT: Cognitive behavioural therapy, MCS: mental component score and PCS: physical component score.

On page 9 under Introduction, second paragraph; one of the references have been written out in text, “Ladwig et al., 2018”. The reference corresponds to number 16# in the reference list.

On page 51 under Discussion, Effectiveness and experience of participation in an iCBT programme aiming to reduce depressive symptoms, sixth paragraph; text from the sentences has been moved to the bottom of the page 52. Correct sentence should be, “In study IV, we explored demographic and medical variables that could impact the effect of iCBT on change in depressive symptoms at twelve-month follow-up. The only variables that were retained in the final model were having heart failure and level of depressive symptoms at baseline. Heart failure patients were less likely to experience an improvement in their depressive symptoms. The reason for this can only be based on”